Tax Credits
Program Name	Who is it for?	How much relief is available to me?	How do I receive the credit?
Families First Coronavirus Response Act Tax Credits	Private employers with less than 500 employees (i.e. firms with 500 employees are exempt).	Up to $10,000.	This grant does not need to be repaid, even if the SBA EIDL is ultimately denied. If you do receive the grant, it will count towards the total amount of the EIDL loan.
Employee Retention Tax Credit	The credit is available to employers whose: (1) operations were fully or partially suspended, due to a crisis related shut-down order; or (2) gross receipts declined by more than 50 % when compared to the same quarter in the prior year.	A refundable tax credit of up to $5000/employee, based on a 50% credit for the first $10,000 of qualified wages per employee, including health benefits.	Employers report qualified wages/credits for each calendar quarter on Form 941. In anticipation of the credits, employers can fund qualified wages by accessing federal employment taxes deposited at the IRS or by requesting an advance. Note: Employers receiving this tax credit are not eligible for PPP loans.
